Garrison To Be Feted At Dinner

S-1 11nd 70

A $100-a-plate testimonial dinner for District Attorney Jim Garrison will be held at 7:30 tonight in the International Room of the Roosevelt Hotel.

Assistant District Attorney Andrew Sciambra said many high officials of the city and state, including Gov. John J. McKeithen, will be on hand.

Comedian Mort Sahl will act as master of ceremonies, Sciambra said.

The Garrison aide said the affair was organized by a group of the DA's friends to pay tribute to him. Garrison recently was elected to a third full term as DA.

About 500 persons are expected, Sciambra said, including Mayor Victor H. Schiro, Mayor-nominee Moon Landrieu, Attorney General Jack P. F. Gremillion, James E. Fitzmorris Jr. and a number of civic and labor leaders.
